New Immigrant Student Local Missionary Training Project

2010年

首三個月已經有1000多個 華人移民抵達溫哥華

According to Community Airport Newcomers Network, in the first 3 months of 2010, there has been thousands of Chinese new immigrants arriving Vancouver.

當中不少是希望子女可以受到更好的教育而選擇移民到大溫哥華地區。但不少新移民學生對適應本地學習以至生活遇到不少困難。我們希望借著每個禮拜六的下午在使者學生中心舉辦的I.S.Zone 互動自修地帶，功課輔助服務，讓一班本地短期宣教士可以透過幫助學生解決功課上的困難，分享自己的學習、信仰及生命的經驗，幫助他們適應本地生活，並體驗和經歷福音。

Many of them choose to immigrate to Vancouver because of the quality education for their children here. However, many of the newly immigrated students have difficulties adjusting to the local education system and to the living style. We hope that in every Saturday afternoon through the "I.S.Zone academic assistance program" at AFC Student Centre, local short-term missionaries are able to not only help students solve their academic problems but also act as their peer mentors. Through mentoring, we hope the local short-term missionaries can demonstrate and embody the Gospel of Christ to the students.

本地短期宣教士應徵條件 Short-term missionary requirement

August 2010 to January 2011 (Training in August and I.S.Zone Service begins in the middle of September)

我們

希望各個短期宣教士除了解答學生功課上的困難，更可以成為學生的聆聽者及同行者。

因此，我們希望每位宣教士每星期在 IS Zone 參與事奉最少3個小時，再加上必須出席每個月的團隊聚會。(如有事不能出席 I.S.Zone，請在兩個星期前提早通知，以便安排人手應付)

We hope that other than academic assistance, the short-term missionaries will also be able to listen to the students and accompany them in their daily walk of life. Therefore, we hope that the short-term missionaries can contribute at least 3 hours every week serving in I.S.Zone and attend the monthly team gathering.

(We understand that sometimes the short-term missionaries may not be able to make it to I.S.Zone every week, if that happens, please kindly let us know two weeks ahead for alternative arrangements.)
